

Workshop Program

Oikos Winter School 2024 Greek Linguistics: An introduction to the historical linguistics of Ancient and Medieval Greek

Location: Ghent University, Faculty room, Faculty of Arts & Humanities (first floor, Blandijnberg 2)

Dates: December 9 - December 10

Day 1: December 9

- 11:00 - 11:15 | General Introduction Klaas Bentein – Andrea Cuomo
 - Welcome remarks, objectives, and agenda overview.
 - 11:15 - 13:15 | Dalia Pratali Maffei: *Greek Dialects in the Archaic and Classical Ages: Sociolinguistic Approaches
 - Impulse lecture
 - Hands-on activities, and exercises
 - 13:15 - 14:15 | Lunch Break
 - A relaxed 1.15-hour break to refresh and network.
 - 14:30 - 16:30 | Ezra la Roi: *The Historical Pragmatics of Ancient Greek
 - Impulse lecture
 - Hands-on activities, and exercises
 - 16:30 - 17:00 | Coffee/Networking Break
 - Refreshments and informal networking.
 - 17:00 - 19:00 | Chiara Monaco: *When Variationist Linguistics Meets Metalanguage: Sociolinguistic Snapshots from Postclassical Greek
 - Impulse lecture
 - Hands-on activities, and exercises
-

Day 2: December 10

- 09:00 - 11:00 | David Pérez Moro: *A Diachronic Approach to High-Register Greek: the Process of Rewriting Homer's Iliad
 - Impulse lecture
 - Hands-on activities, and exercises
- 11:00 - 11:30 | Coffee/Networking Break
 - Refreshments and time to connect.
- 11:30 - 13:30 | Michele Didoli & Andrea Cuomo: *Language, Narration, Imagery: a Linguistic Approach to Intralingual Greek Translations in Early Modern Times
 - Impulse lecture
 - Hands-on activities, and exercises
- 13:30 | Conclusion and No-Host Lunch
 - Informal lunch for participants to wrap up and network on their own